

ARB,XRB,YRB,ZRB503

第一級総合無線通信士 「英会話」試験問題
第一級海上無線通信士 「英会話」試験問題
第二級海上無線通信士 「英会話」試験問題
第三級海上無線通信士 「英会話」試験問題

(注) 解答方法：選択肢の中から答えを一つ選び、その番号に対応する答案用紙のマーク欄を黒く塗りつぶすこと。

QUESTION 1: What do you call the small soft flakes of ice that fall from the sky in cold weather?

- (1) Rain.
- (2) Snow.
- (3) Smoke.
- (4) Ash.

QUESTION 2: When introducing a Mr. Tanaka to a Mr. Sato, what might you say?

- (1) Mr. Sato, let me introduce Mr. Tanaka to you.
- (2) Mr. Tanaka, let me introduce Mr. Sato to you.
- (3) Let me introduce myself to Mr. Tanaka and Mr. Sato.
- (4) Mr. Tanaka and Mr. Sato. How do you do?

QUESTION 3: A lighthouse is built to guide ships away from danger. How does the lighthouse guide the ships?

- (1) By locating ships with its light.
- (2) By flashing in the dark.
- (3) By lighting up distressed ships.
- (4) By sheltering ships from the wind and waves.

QUESTION 4: We usually use chopsticks when eating the local food of our country. What do restaurants provide for eating Western-style dishes abroad?

- (1) Chopsticks, usually.
- (2) Knives, forks and spoons, usually.
- (3) Chopsticks and forks, usually.
- (4) A frying pan or pot, usually.

QUESTION 5: Territorial waters are the seas near a country's coast, over which that country has legal control. Do all areas of the Pacific Ocean lie within Japanese territorial waters?

- (1) Yes.
- (2) No.
- (3) None of the ocean is Japanese territory.
- (4) Nobody knows.

QUESTION 6: Please imagine you are the captain of a ship and your ship is going to enter a narrow passage. When you want to know if you must take tugboats, what might you say?

- (1) In what sea condition would you need to take tugboats?
- (2) Must I enter the passage to take tugboats?
- (3) Why must I take tugboats?
- (4) Do I have to take tugboats?

QUESTION 7: Do larger ships pitch and roll more than small ones?

- (1) No, they don't.
- (2) No, they never pitch and roll in any seas.
- (3) Yes, they do in a calm sea.
- (4) Yes, they pitch and roll more and more in stormy seas.