

ARB 309 第一級総合無線通信士「英会話」試験問題

XRB 309 第一級海上無線通信士「英会話」試験問題

YRB 309 第二級海上無線通信士「英会話」試験問題

ZRB 309 第三級海上無線通信士「英会話」試験問題

(注) 解答方法： 選択肢の中から最も適切な答えを一つ選び、その番号に対応する答案用紙のマーク欄を黒く塗りつぶしなさい。

QUESTION 1 You are going hiking in the mountains tomorrow. How might you check what the weather will be?

1. I'd watch a talk show on TV.
2. I'd watch a TV weather forecast.
3. I'd call the traffic information center.
4. I'd check the maritime forecast.

QUESTION 2 You ask an American friend if you can borrow his car. He says, "Be my guest". What does he mean?

1. You are my best friend.
2. You can stay if you like.
3. Sure, go ahead.
4. You can see me anytime.

QUESTION 3 You see a foreign tourist standing with her bags on the train and want to offer her your seat. What do you say to her?

1. Where do you come from?
2. Welcome to Japan. How do you like Japan?
3. Why don't you put the bags down?
4. Please take my seat.

QUESTION 4 A coast station tells you that your signals are not powerful enough. What should you do?

1. I should reduce the power.
2. I should stop transmitting.
3. I should send the message faster.
4. I should increase the power.

QUESTION 5 Different names are used to describe violent tropical storms depending on their location and also strength. What do you call such a storm when it forms in the Indian Ocean?

1. A hurricane.
2. A typhoon.
3. A cyclone.
4. A tornado.

QUESTION 6 You are a radio operator on board a ship and have received a distress message. Can you send an ordinary message on this distress frequency now?

1. No, I can't, because there may be more distress messages.
2. I can send one even if the rescue operation is not over yet.
3. Only when the ship in distress tells me it's OK to do so.
4. It depends on the type of communication.

QUESTION 7

Yokohama Port Radio tells you to keep watch on its channel to receive anchorage information. What should you do?

1. I should continue transmitting messages.
2. I should keep watch on the channel designated by the Port Radio.
3. I should keep watch on the designated channel to receive the weather information.
4. I should send back the anchorage information received from the Port Radio.