

ARB 909	第一級総合無線通信士「英会話」試験問題
XRБ 909	第一級海上無線通信士「英会話」試験問題
YRB 909	第二級海上無線通信士「英会話」試験問題
ZRB 909	第三級海上無線通信士「英会話」試験問題

(注) 解答方法： 選択肢の中から最も適切な答えを一つ選び、その番号に対応する答案用紙のマーク欄を黒く塗りつぶしなさい。

QUESTION 1 While commuting to your office by car, you are caught in a long traffic jam. How might this affect your commute?

1. I am likely to be quite late for work.
2. My commute to work will probably be shorter today.
3. I am likely to reach my office on time.
4. I am likely to arrive at my office earlier than usual.

QUESTION 2 Developments in the medical field have produced many treatments for incurable diseases. What impact have they had on life expectancy?

1. The average life expectancy has gone up.
2. The average life expectancy has gone down.
3. They have not changed the average life expectancy.
4. More people than ever are becoming disappointed with the progress of medicine.

QUESTION 3 After a long discussion, the chairman has decided to wrap up today's meeting. There are still some things you want to say but the group is in agreement. What will you do?

1. I will carry on talking.
2. I will stop discussing the subject for now.
3. I will have a coffee during the break in the meeting.
4. I will welcome their agreement with me.

QUESTION 4 You are a coast guard officer and working at your station. You have just been requested to send help immediately to a point 10 miles off the coast to find a missing man. What should you do?

1. I should arrange for a pilot to guide the ship to the port.
2. I should ask a radio operator to send a test signal immediately.
3. I should arrange for a helicopter to go to the scene as quickly as possible.
4. I should call the Meteorological Agency and ask for the latest weather status.

QUESTION 5 The harbormaster's office has received an inquiry regarding the under keel clearance in port. What information is required?

1. Whether the ship is listing
2. Whether the berth is long enough for the ship
3. Whether the water is deep enough for the ship's draught
4. Whether the ship is low enough to pass under the bridge

QUESTION 6 You are the captain of a cargo ship. A typhoon is coming during the night while you are at your anchorage. You will want to check whether the anchors are dragging during the storm. How can you confirm the ship is not drifting?

1. I can take frequent GPS measurements.
2. I can calculate my position from the stars.
3. I can measure the barometric pressure continuously.
4. I can maintain continuous watch on the distress frequencies.

QUESTION 7 You are the radio operator of a ship. You have received a distress call by radio telephony. What will you do first?

1. I will report the distress call to the captain of the ship immediately and follow instructions.
2. I will check NAVTEX messages for any hazardous weather conditions because the ship in distress may be in a storm.
3. I will call my company using the distress frequency immediately to inform them of a possible delay due to a rescue operation.
4. I will communicate with the coast station of the nearest port because it may have some information about the ship in distress.